

Things I already know

To know that artists have different styles.

To know that my ideas can be expressed in my art work

Key Facts

- Observational drawing is drawing what you see.
- Printing is a way to make many identical copies of texts and images on paper.
- Monoprint is a form of printmaking in which an image is made from a smooth surface.

Key vocabulary

nature	the interaction between physical surroundings around us.
botanical	relating to plants and the study of them.
image	a visual representation of something.
Printing block	a print that is made by carving a design into a block of something.
pressure	amount of pressure put on an object depends on the force applied.
surface	the outside of anything.

Questions I can answer

- What is an observational drawing?
- What is Botanical art?
- What is Impressionism?
- What is a printing block? How is it used?
- What is a monoprint?
- How do artists represent flowers/ plants in their work?

FRUITS

Relationships - Sharing your own resources/ experiences / opinions with each other of your artwork.

Unique - Everyone has different thoughts and experiences.

Intellect – Learn about different art movements in the form of Impressionism and Botanical art and how modern day artists can be influenced by this.

Treat each other with respect - When we share our experiences and thoughts/ opinions. Looking after and caring for our local environments.